

Anderson County Youth Livestock Ambassador Program

Purpose: The Anderson County Youth Livestock Ambassador Program strives to provide high school aged livestock show participants the opportunity to develop and practice advanced leadership skills and become an advocate for their county livestock show division.

Responsibilities:

- Give at least one educational presentation about your division prior to the livestock show.
- Help with weigh-in and/or check in of your division
- Assist division superintendent as needed
- Be an available resource to novice livestock show participants in your division
- Assist at the Livestock show for set up, take down and during the show.
- Attend scheduled ACYL Ambassador Program meetings

Application process: Applications will be available from your 4-H leaders, County Agents, Extension Office, FFA advisors, or other ACYLA Board Members. Applications must be turned into Jordan McInnis or Preston Sturdivant by mail, email, or in person.
