

4-H DISTRICT FOOD CHALLENGE - Three Baylor County 4-H teams competed at the District Food Challenge contest held in Jacksboro. Modeled after such competitions as the Food Network's Iron Chef and Chopped, the 4-H Food Challenge allows teams of 3-5 members to create a dish using only a surprise set of ingredients and then present their dish, along with nutritional information, to the Judges. The senior team of Ranger Donnell, Kade McAdams, Maleah Walker and Marissa Walker placed third. The junior team of Ivey Bassham, Sadie Bassham, Caroline Futch, and Mallory Hosea placed fourth. The junior team of Cooper Daniel, Garrett Gwinn, Eric Hosea, Briley Hostas, and Layton McAdams also competed.

WAY TO GO! - won overall Grand Park Jackpot $ were approxim

Food Manag

Texas A&M County is off certification t beginning at 8 Office. Cost inc food manager manager's cer Under the Texa (DSHS) jurisdic required to hav by that establi not only prep certification e education req Foodborne illr of dollars in lo With these sta foodborne illr about the Food call the Baylor 5581. Deadline