

The Baylor County 4-H Livestock Judging Teams Find Success!!

By Josh Kouns

The Baylor County 4-H livestock judging teams recently competed at the District contest in Vernon. The Intermediate team placed third overall and the senior team placed second overall earning them a spot at the state contest in June at College Station. Over 180 4-H youth across the district evaluated 8 classes of cattle, sheep, goats and swine and gave oral reasons on 1-4 classes. Team members competing pictured below left to right: Carson Hardin, Ryann Martinez, Maleah Walker, Ranger Donnell, Ivey Bassham, Sadie Bassham, Rilee Slaggle, Norah Futch, Caroline Futch and Cooper Daniel.

