

QUESTIONS FOR INTERVIEW- COMMERCIAL HEIFER PROGRAM
JUNIOR DIVISION

1. Name at least 3 diseases that your heifers were immunized against.
2. What do you like most about the commercial heifer program?
3. At what age do you typically breed heifers?
4. At what age is most desirable to calve heifers?
5. What is the breed of bull your heifers are bred to?
6. Name 3 important selection traits that you looked for when selecting your heifers.
7. What is the maximum age allowed for heifers at tag in?
8. What does the term gestation mean & how long is the gestation period for cattle?
9. There are 3 methods that can be used to deworm cattle, what are they?
10. What was the most difficult part of your heifer project this year?
11. If you were judging heifers at this show what factors would you look for in selecting the best pen of heifers?
12. What do you consider the most important factor in selecting a bull to breed your heifers to?
13. Would it be a good idea to keep your heifers in a dry lot pen and fed all they could eat?
14. What is the $1 charge for the Beef Check-off Program used for?
15. How many stomachs does a cow have?
16. Cattle that you see with hair rubbed off are most likely infested with what?
17. Beef check-off money is collected on an animal when: (A) a calf is born (B) a calf is weaned (C) each time ownership changes or (D) each time an animal is placed in a feedlot?
18. What are some reasons you should consider buying your heifers for this program early? Maybe by Nov. or Dec.
19. What is the money you paid in for consignment fees use for?
20. What is the length of estrous in heifers or cows?
21. When a vet palpates a heifer or cow what is he trying to determine?
22. Who sponsors the Brazos County Youth Commercial Heifer Show & Sale?

