

2022 SALES RULES & REGULATIONS

1. The Gillespie County Youth Livestock Show Association sale will be a premium sale. The seller retains ownership of their animal, and all animals will be sold by the unit not by the pound.
2. Animals will sell in 4 equal rounds. The order of each round will be broilers, turkeys, hogs, steers, lambs, and goats. Each year the last group from the previous year will move first and everything else will move down. The grand champion steer will always start the sale. The rest of the animals will sell in the order of that year's placement. (See above)
3. Exhibitors who have the grand champions, reserve grand champions, breed champions, or reserve breed champions may sell at the beginning of the sale in the sale of the champions. The office needs to be notified one hour after judging of species is over.
4. An exhibitor may sell only one unit. A unit is one animal, pen of broilers, or one turkey. The animal-broiler-turkey unit Must Have Been Shown at Gillespie County Youth Livestock Show to be Eligible to Sell.
5. It is the responsibility of each exhibitor to sell his/her animal through the sale ring. If the seller is not in the sale lineup, they are considered "No Show, No Sale". An exhibitor may have someone stand in for them at the sale with the permission from an Association Director, County Agent or FFA instructor.
6. Purchasers are required to make checks payable to the Gillespie County Youth Livestock Show. If you do not pay the night of the sale, please make arrangements for billing with the show secretary.
7. A commission will be charged on all sale animals. This commission will be set after the show. The commission will cover all bills as well as money for the scholarship fund. We currently are charging 3%.
8. It is the responsibility of the buyer that signs the purchase confirmation sheet at the sale to be responsible for payment. This includes whether he is buying for himself, his business or acting as a buyer for someone else or business. This also includes syndicate purchasing. The person responsible for the syndicate needs to collect the money and get the invoice paid with the secretary/treasurer of the show. All syndicates need to get a list of members with their names and addresses if you want your members to be invited to the Appreciation BBQ on Sunday evening January 6th. This list needs to be given to the secretary of the stock show.
9. If a person wants to add onto an exhibitor's unit they must come in the office and fill out paperwork as well as pay the Association for the add on the night of the sale. If not collected by the time check is written to exhibitor, the add-on will be taken off of the exhibitors proceeds.
10. If a parent or guardian is a buyer at the sale either as an individual or as a business, he or she will be responsible to pay their bill before their child will receive their premium sale check. There will be no exceptions to this rule.
11. A floor price will be offered on meat goats, steers, market lambs, and market swine. It will be the exhibitor's responsibility to take their animal to the designated pen and/or trailer for floor animals. Specific instructions for floor pen locations and times will be announced during the show.
12. All exhibitors will receive a W-2 for the premium sale amount they received from the sale. All exhibitors must have a personal Social Security Number to be eligible to participate in the Gillespie County Youth Livestock Show. Social Security Numbers must be recorded on entry forms. If not recorded the exhibitor will not be allowed to show and/or be part of the premium sale.
