BEEF CATTLE CEU PROGRAM

By: Dwight Sexton
CEA-AG
Gonzales County

Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service of Gonzales County is sponsoring the Beef Cattle CEU Program to be held on Thursday, January 11, 2018 at the JB Wells Expo Center in Gonzales. Five (5) CEU's will be provided for private, commercial, and non-commercial pesticide license holders.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m., with the program beginning at 9:00 a.m. To kick off the program, Bob Lyons, Extension Range Specialist will discuss KR Bluestem and Brush Suppression. Following will be Joe Paschal, Extension Livestock Specialist to address Beef Cattle Hot Topics (Fever Tick, Veterinary Feed Directive, Etc.). Concluding the morning will be Bryan Davis, Wilson County Ag Extension Agent to address Ag Apps.

Following the morning programs, a catered meal will be served. Melissa Barton, Texas Department of Agriculture will discuss Pesticide Applicator Laws & Regulations, followed by Robert Bowling, Extension Entomologist will discuss Pasture Insect Control. The program should conclude at about 3:00 p.m.

The JB Wells Expo Center is located at 2301 County Road 197, near the intersection of Highways 183 and 97, south of Gonzales.

There will be a $30 per person cost, which includes morning refreshments and a catered lunch. You will need to RSVP for the program by calling the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Office in Gonzales County at 830-672-8531 by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, January 8th.

Individuals with disabilities who require an auxiliary aid, service or accommodation in order to participate in this program are encouraged to contact the Extension Office by January 4th to determine how reasonable accommodations can be made.
