

RECOGNITION OF JUNIOR 4-H MEMBERS

CLOVER AWARD

The Clover Award is given to one or two deserving junior 4-H member(s) who has/have excelled in his or her project work.

- Eligibility: Members who have completed two consecutive years as a 4-H member and have not passed their 11th birthday before September 1 of the current 4-H year.
- Materials Required: 4-H Recordbook
- Rules:
1. Must have completed two consecutive years as a Junior 4-H member.
 2. Must not have passed their 11th birthday before September 1 of the current 4-H year.
 3. Must complete a 4-H Recordbook.
 4. Cannot receive the award more than once as a Junior 4-H member.
 5. Must complete a 4-H Clover Award Application.
- Selection by: Out of county judges will review 4-H Recordbook and Application.
- Judging Criteria:
1. Achievement
 - ✓ Completion of 4-H Recordbook
 - ✓ Local 4-H Club participation
 - ✓ County 4-H participation
 2. Community Service
 - ✓ Individual, Local, Club and County
 3. Leadership
 - ✓ Example: helping other members, recruiting members, club officers, committees, etc.

Suitable award will be secured and presented.

COUNTY 4-H CLOVER AWARD

Available to (1) or two (2) deserving 4-H member(s) who has/have excelled in his or her project work.

NAME: _____

CLUB: _____ AGE: _____

The following requirements have been made for the 4-H Cover Award:

_____ Been in 4-H for 2 consecutive years.

_____ Have not passed your 10th birthday before September 1 of the current 4-H year.

_____ Completed a 4-H Recordbook.

1. What is your favorite activity or project in 4-H?

2. What leadership activities have you participated in during your 4-H membership?

3. What community service have you participated in during your 4-H membership?

4. Why are you deserving the 4-H Clover Award?

4-H Member Signature

Parent Signature

Club Manager Signature

Date