

HILL COUNTY FAIR

LIVESTOCK DIVISION

January 25 – January 30, 2021

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

These Rules Are In Effect Until After Stock Show 2021

Please note that all dates, times, and events are subject to change at any time.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Nick Hoffman Charlie French
Larry Little

1. The Hill County Fair Livestock Show will be held annually as part of the Hill County Fair in Hillsboro.
2. All exhibitors in the Hill County Fair Livestock Show must be a bona fide member of a Hill County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter, and not be a high school graduate. The exhibitor will be ineligible if he/she has exhibited a project in another County Show during the current school year.
3. All exhibitors must own and exhibit their animal. Substitution of show men are allowed only for exhibitor having two or more animals in the same class, doctor's excuse or note from principal verifying another school activity. The Hill County Fair Livestock Show will enforce no pass-no play rule during the show. If the student is eligible to show he will be eligible to sell. It is the responsibility of the schools, County Agents and 4-H leaders to check grades. There will be no substitutions of showmen for failing students.
4. The Livestock Committee is made up of the Show Superintendent and the Superintendents of the respective divisions.
5. The Executive Committee will make last minute decisions on rules and protests and will serve as a sift committee for the fair. Livestock division superintendents will have the authority to make immediate decisions related to safety of the exhibitors and livestock.
6. The Hill County Fair Livestock Show Executive Committee reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of, or in connection with, or incident to this show, with the exception of validation dates and ownership deadline.
7. Any protest to be considered must be submitted in writing and accompanied by $250 cash to the Superintendent of the show before the animal or project is exhibited. The Executive Committee will consider the protest. The superintendent of the division being protested will serve as an alternate to the committee.
8. In no case shall the Hill County Fair Livestock Show nor any of the Show Superintendents and officials be held responsible for loss, injury, death or disability from disease, or from theft, hail storm, fire or from damages from any cause to the person or property, while any person or property is on the show grounds.
9. Exhibitors may place a sign over each exhibit. Official organization cards should be used by members of such organizations. Tie areas will be assigned to each community. All exhibits will be tied in their respective areas.
10. All animals must remain in designated pen or tie-out area after weigh-in and no exhibitor shall remove his or her exhibit from show grounds until the animal is shown.
11. All cars and trailers will be parked in an area designated by the Superintendent of the show. No RVs OR camping in livestock trailers allowed on the grounds. The youth leaders will be responsible for seeing that the exhibitors drive in a manner that will be safe while around the show grounds.
12. Any exhibit erroneously entered may be entered correctly prior to show time by contacting the Superintendent of their division.
13. Scales will be provided at the show and all animals will be weighed and divided into classes according to these recorded weights. All animals will be weighed one time only, with weight tolerances of 10 lbs. for steers, 5 lbs. for swine and 3 lbs. for lambs and goats. Any market animal below or above weight must be removed from the grounds immediately. Show Superintendent interpretation of weights and classes is final.
14. An animal may be shown only in one class.
15. Steers, breeding heifers, swine, lambs, goats and horses not in show condition, those not halter broken, or otherwise not desirable for show will be sifted by sift committee. If for any reason an animal cannot make its way into the show ring, it will not be eligible for judging.

16. Any comparable classes may be divided or combined at the Show Superintendent's discretion if the number of entries so warrants.
17. Numbered ribbons and prize money will be given in each breeding class. Showmanship buckles will be presented to a junior and senior participant in each division (except breeding swine and breeding goats). Junior showmanship classes consist of exhibitors who are 13 years and younger. Senior showmanship classes consist of exhibitors 14 years and older. All exhibitors are eligible to return to compete for showmanship.
18. The number of places and amount of prize money will be determined by the number of entries in each breeding class.
19. No prize money will be given in market classes.
20. To compete for Grand Champion, the first place winner of each class will compete for Grand Champion of the Division. After the Champion has been selected, the second place animal of the class, from which the Champion has been selected, will compete for Reserve Champion.
21. Cattle may be hayed and watered in barn. Stalls must be cleaned daily and at end of show. Hay may not be used for bedding. Hog pens must be cleaned daily.
22. Facilities will be closed each day at 10:00 pm and will re-open at 4:30 am.
23. Livestock Validation Deadlines are as follows:
All swine, goats, lambs, and heifers must have a Hill County Fair tag or be State Validated. All steers must be State Validated.
 - a. Steers must be validated on June 8, 2020 or no later than June 22, 2020.
 - b. All commercial or registered heifers must be tagged with a Hill County Fair tag or be State Validated no later than Tuesday, October 27, 2020. Previously validated registered heifers are eligible to show in the Hill County Fair.
 - c. All market barrows and breeding gilts to be shown on the county and/or major show level must be tagged with a Hill County Fair tag or be State Validated on November 16, 23, or 30, 2020 Ear notches and breed will be documented on county validation paperwork for all swine validated for the Hill County Fair.
 - d. All market and breeding goats and lambs to be shown on the county and/or major show level must be tagged with a Hill County Fair tag or state validated no later than Monday, October 19, 2020.
 - e. Rabbit validation for ALL meat pen and breeding rabbits will be held Thursday, January 7, 2021.
 - f. All broilers will come from Texas A&M Poultry Science Department – Orders are placed through Ag Science Teachers or County Agents by October 16, 2020
24. The Hill County Fair reserves the right to test any animal or poultry officially entered in any division, for any foreign substance including drugs, chemicals, or feed additives. Anyone found in violation will be disqualified and declared ineligible to receive premium money or sale proceeds. Carcass of disqualified animal or poultry will be disposed of per written instructions from USDA or FDA.
25. Exhibitors eligible for showmanship must own and exhibit their animal in that division.
26. Drench guns allowed. Pumps not allowed.
27. Touch up clipping is allowed on all species.
28. This is a Blow and Go Show for All Species – NO paint, glue, powders, adhesives, etc. are allowed.
29. No heat lamps allowed.
30. NO dogs allowed on the fairgrounds unless they are a service dog.
31. All pens are to be cleaned of shavings at the release of livestock projects.
32. No professional fitters allowed. Hill County Agriculture Science Teachers, Hill County Extension Agents, Parents/Legal Guardians may fit livestock.

'PREMIUM SALE RULES'

1. Each exhibitor may sell only one market animal. All Grand and Reserve Grand Champion market animals will be sold.
2. When exhibitor has more than one animal eligible for sale, the exhibitor must declare within one hour after their last animal has shown which animal will be in the sale. If not declared in one hour the highest placing animal will be in the sale. If exhibitor has two animals placing the same the heaviest animal will be sold. There is no bump up.
3. Each exhibitor may only sell only one animal in the Livestock Premium Sale.
4. Each exhibitor is responsible for his or her animal after the sale.
5. All market animals will be sold according to placing. The order will be as follows:

Overall Grand Champions
Overall Reserve Champions
Division Champions
Division Reserve Champions
Placing animals – Light, Medium, Heavy or in placing order

All sale lots will rotate in the following order:
Steers, Lambs, Goats, Swine, Broilers, Rabbits

6. Only animals placing in the top 75% of each class will be eligible to sell. No rounding of number.
7. No animal will sell for more than the grand or reserve champion of that species.
8. Each exhibitor must be present in the sale ring when his/her animal is sold. Substitutions are allowed only for participation in other school-sponsored activity or doctor's excuse. Request may be made to Livestock Superintendent to substitute for extenuating circumstances. (Vacations are not a valid excuse).
8. All checks must be cashed within 60 days of the issue date of the check or be VOID.
9. A 5% commission on each market animal sold will be paid by the seller to the Livestock Division to cover building projects and auction expenses such as caps for buyers, printing of sale list, postage, etc. This commission will be deducted from the seller's check. Any money left over will go into an escrow account to be used for show facility improvements.
- 10. Each exhibitor is to write a "Thank You" note to buyer purchasing his or her animal and make every effort to thank buyer in person.
