Family Guide to the Texas 4-H Recordbook

Recordkeeping is a valuable skill taught to members of the Texas 4-H program. Members are encouraged to keep project records and have these records reviewed annually by submitting a Texas 4-H Recordbook. The primary purposes of completing a recordbook are for a young person to develop the skills necessary to set goals, work toward achieving those goals, reflect on his/her experiences, and set new and higher goals for themselves. A secondary benefit is to prepare young people for the process of completing quality academic scholarship applications.

The current record book forms

1. Have three age appropriate formats – Junior, Intermediate and Senior.
2. Word and PDF formats are available for download.
3. The evaluation or judging process focuses on personal achievement, using a rubric scoring system.

Please NOTE: the online recordkeeping system 4hreports.com was taken offline October 31, 2015.

What is a Texas 4-H Recordbook?

A recordbook consists of information that a 4-H member records over the course of a 4-H year that documents his/her goals, knowledge and skills gained, leadership experiences, awards earned, and service in his/her community. Those experiences are recorded into forms, narratives, and a story written by the 4-H member. The information is printed, bound in a cover, and is typically submitted for evaluation.

Three different formats for recordbooks have been developed for junior, intermediate, and senior age divisions. Members may download forms either in Word or fillable PDF formats, or any combination in order to develop a complete set of records. One of these formats must be used.

Competitive Recordbook Categories A 4-H member will choose one 4-H project for their Recordbook entry. These categories are described in detail in Appendix E.

Agricultural Sciences	Beef	Citizenship & Civic Education
Clothing & Textiles	Companion Animal	Communication & Expressive Arts
Consumer Education	Entomology	Family Life

Record-Keeping Process

Goal Setting - Getting Started

Prior to or at the beginning of the 4-H year, a member should begin identifying, setting and recording personal goals for themselves in each project area. Parents, club managers, adult volunteers, and County Extension Agents play an important role in helping guide young people through this process. Members should record their personal goals and then begin work toward achieving those goals. Be sure to record anything the member would like to learn or do.

Journaling - As Things Happen

Record keeping is going to be an important part of a member's life. Members will keep records in high school, in college and at work whether they own their own business or work for someone else. Now is the time to learn how to keep good records. The most important thing about 4-H record keeping is to find a comfortable way to collect information. Some of the most common ways of keeping up with 4-H records include a calendar, an index box, smart phone, computer, or a notebook. These are further defined below.

- A. Calendar Method - Keep a calendar in a handy location (such as on the refrigerator) and every time the member does something related to 4-H, school, church or other organizations, write it down. Then at the end of each month place the calendar in a safe place until it is time to assemble the recordbook.
- B. Index Box Method - Get a 3-inch by 5-inch box, index cards and some dividers. Label each of the dividers as one of the sections in the report form discussed later in this guide. Then each time the member does something, write it down on an index card, then file the card in the section marked by the divider. For example: If the 4-H member were to go to the nursing home for recreation with the residents, then have him/her write it down and put the card behind the community service divider. After maintaining the “4-H File Box” for a year, pull the cards out and select the most important activities for the 4-H recordbook. Do not forget to date each card.
- C. Binder or Spiral Notebook Method - Grab an old school binder or notebook and organize each of activity by type or by date. This is an easy first step to start out, until the member gets the hang of record keeping.
- D. Electronic Device – If an electronic device is available, use an “app” or some other software to record or document activities, trainings, clinics, leadership roles, service activities, project experiences, etc.
- E. 4hreports.com – no longer accessible after October 31, 2015.
- F. NEW!!! Williamson County 4-H member Claire Godwin has created templates in Google for recordkeeping. This is not a 4-H Record Book template – it is a tool for recordkeeping, but the end product of the records is that they can be easily copied and pasted into the Word and PDF forms. See Appendix F in the Family Guide for more details on this new resource.

Reflecting – Looking Back

Below are some questions to help a member start reflecting on his/her project experiences as he or she prepares to complete a recordbook.

- What did you learn from your project?
- Did you meet any of your goals? If so, what helped you attain those? If not, what were some obstacles that might have prevented you reaching your goals.
- How did your project change or grow within the year or from previous years?
- What type of leadership capacity did you serve in?
- What impact did your involvement have on you, your club, or community?
- How has your project experiences influenced your future career choice?

Clarification on learning activities that take place outside of 4-H clubs and project groups

Very often 4-H members have the opportunity to enhance their 4-H project learning experiences by participating in activities beyond the 4-H club/project. Example, a youth may participate in a showmanship clinic sponsored by a cattle breed association. The learning that takes place and the practice of showing transcends to their 4-H project and thus should be reported as such. However, if that same 4-H member competes in a showmanship competition sponsored by the breed association that would be reported as a non 4-H event.

Another example may be in the Communication and Expressive Arts category where many learning experiences may take place within a community theatre or through school theatre. The knowledge, skills and practice associated can be reported as learning experiences. A competitive event or production, however, would be reported as a non-4-H activity.

4-H members also lead self-determined projects where they may be the only individual in their club or county with that particular interest. Or, perhaps at that particular time there is not a volunteer to lead the project. Learning activities that are self-directed are to be reported just as any other learning activity.

Record Books submitted for evaluation; 4-H Competition

What will judges look for?

Recordbooks submitted for competition will be evaluated based on project work, leadership, community service, awards, and non 4-H activities. Please refer to the appropriate age division's score sheet for judging criteria. (Junior–Appendix A; Intermediate–Appendix B; Senior-Appendix C)

Recordbooks will be judged primarily on content. Emphasis will be placed on the quality of the member's experiences, activities, leadership, service, and accomplishments. When readers look at a recordbook, they take into account the details in relation to how long the member has been in 4-H.

Don't forget to take pictures throughout the year of 4-H projects and activities. Take lots of active shots. Photos with awards are great for your documentation, but you want to show how you got there. Waiting until the last minute and having to pose or create false photos is not recommended.

Recordbook Cover

All types of covers or binders are accepted. Official 4-H recordbook covers can be ordered from National 4-H Supply if desired. Some county Extension offices may have a supply of these covers or may place county orders, check with them.

JUNIOR RECORD BOOK

Personal Information Page	A single page that contains personal contact information; used to verify the appropriate member division, category entered and that information contained within the recordbook reflects the work of the individual submitting the records for evaluation. This information page is not judged.
Junior Report Form	The Junior Report Form consists of four (4) main sections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Goals (main project; current year only) • Diary (all projects; current year only; no page limit; summarize as much as possible) • My 4-H Story (all projects; all years) details below • Awards, Service, and Leadership (all projects, current year) The story is included within the form itself and members should not add any additional pages for their stories beyond the space that is provided. The story should focus on information for the current 4-H year; however, it may also include information from prior years. The junior story is broken down into six individual sections that include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family Information • Why you joined 4-H • Club or Project Activities • Favorite Parts of 4-H • Areas for Future Expansion or Future Goals • Other Information
Photos	Juniors may include up to 3 pages (single-sided) of photos. Photos should depict 4-H project work and activities with focus on the current year, but may also include previous year's photos. Photo captions may be used to help convey what is illustrated in the photo, but captions are not required. The photos used are a very important part of the 4-H recordbook. Photos should reflect growth, development and involvement throughout the 4-H career. Use photos that show the member doing things, learning and teaching others, and especially of the member having FUN in 4-H. Use photos that show the main project, other projects, leadership, community service and other 4-H related pictures. Photos depicting family activities, livestock auction, U.I.L., sports events, other school events (non 4-H related photos) are discouraged.

INTERMEDIATE RECORD BOOK

Personal Information Page	A single page that contains personal contact information; used to verify the appropriate age division, category entered and that information contained within the recordbook reflects the work of the individual submitting the records for evaluation. This information page is not judged.
Story and Photo Portfolio	The story should focus on information from the current year; however, it may also include information from prior years. Title the portfolio as follows: “My 4-H _____ (Recordbook Category) Story and Photo Portfolio”. Example, “My 4-H Horse Story and Photo Portfolio”. A subtitle can be added. The story should include information such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information about yourself, your family and your community • When and why you joined 4-H • Project Goals • Things about your involvement in the recordbook category you are entering and the most important things that you have learned in 4-H • Highlights of other 4-H projects and activities • How 4-H has helped you become a better leader and citizen and what you have learned through your community service and leadership activities • How being a 4-H member has helped you set goals (tell what the goals are) and develop new interests, and if 4-H has influenced your future plans or career goals The photos used are a very important and should reflect growth, development and involvement in the member’s 4-H career. Use photos that show the member doing things, learning and teaching others, and especially having FUN in 4-H. Use photos that show the main project, other projects, leadership, and community service. Photos depicting family activities, livestock auctions, U.I.L., sports events, other school events (non-4-H related photos) are discouraged. Captions help tell the story and describe what is in the photo, but are not required. Story and photos may be combined. Color and/or black and white photos, clear sharp copies of photos (scanned and/or color copied), and newspaper photo clippings can be used; however, they cannot overlap and must be fastened securely. No newspaper stories are allowed. The combined portfolio should not exceed 10 pages; the story must be at least 3 pages of double-spaced type, using a minimum of a 10-point or equivalent size font. A minimum equivalent of 3 pages of photos is required. The remaining four pages are up to the member, which can include additional text, photos or left completely out. There is no requirement to use all 10 pages.

INTERMEDIATE (CONTINUED)

Intermediate Report Form	Forms are available as either a Word or PDF document. The Texas 4-H Report Form is the main reporting form for the 4-H recordbook. There is no requirement to use all 10 pages.

Senior Report Form

Forms are available as either a Word or PDF document. The Texas 4-H Report Form is the main reporting form for the 4-H recordbook. It is used to report all of the activities that a member does, along with school, church and other community groups. Always keep in mind that 4-H teaches growth, so show as much growth as possible when filling out the report form.

4-H Members are to keep Report Forms on all projects. The Main Project Report Form for the Category being judged will be included here. All others will be placed as a final section at the end; providing 4-H members the opportunity to have a complete history of their 4-H experiences.

The Senior Report Form includes:

Section I: 4-H Project Experiences asks: What is your project? How did your project change or grow? What have you done and what have you learned?

Note: 3 page maximum, current year’s information only; report up to four projects; list the recordbook category entered as the first project.

This section includes, but is not limited to, such things as: items bought, items made and/or raised, places visited, profits/losses, and hours spent on the project. Projects outlined in the Report Form must include the project or project(s) that match the recordbook category entered.

List all of the cool and neat things that the member has done and learned that are related to his/her 4-H projects. This is the member’s opportunity to tell the world: “Look at the cool stuff I have been doing!” Include such things as, but not limited to, workshops, contests, tours, research, computer learning programs, study of written material, interviews, etc. These learning activities may be completed in a project setting or may be the result of an independently conducted project; they may also have been completed in other youth or community organizations. Report the learning that took place.

Learning experiences are those activities in which the 4-H member has been a participant and not a teacher or instructor. Project related leadership experiences should be reported under Volunteer Leadership in Section II. Remember everything done in 4-H is at some level—local, county, district, state, national or international. The member needs to let others know the level of participation in these activities. “Code” each experience by using “L” for local and/or club, “C” for county, “D” for district, “S” for state, “N” for national and an “I” for international.

Section I should include information on a maximum of four projects. Additional 4-H projects are listed in Section IV of the Report Form. This four-project report allows the member to write about his/her successes and to show a greater amount of growth.

Leadership and Citizenship are listed as projects just like Swine, Beef, Clothing and Textiles, etc. Examples of leadership learning experience might include learning about different leadership styles, how to work with people, and effective communication.

New!!!	Effective September 1, 2015 Livestock Judging can be listed as a project. Horse Judging should continue to be listed under Horse Project as a learning experience; similarly for Dairy Judging, Wool Judging, etc... Quiz Bowl activities should continue to be listed under the respective project for which the Quiz Bowl is held.
Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section II - 4-H Leadership Experiences List what you did to assist others throughout this 4-H year. Also include general leadership such as Club Officer, 4-H County Council, or County Committees on your main project record. Included elected/appointed and volunteer leadership. Note: 2 page maximum, current year's information 4-H leadership experiences are the most important things that tell others how the member has been involved in teaching and leading. The Texas 4-H Report Form provides two pages for the member to tell about these leadership experiences for the current 4-H year. It is important to list leadership experiences that are tied to your main project area. The 4-H member should be able to demonstrate leadership in three different areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promotion • Volunteer • Elected/Appointed Promotion Leadership should explain, "How have you told someone about 4H?" This includes such activities as wearing a 4-H T-shirt to school, getting a picture related to 4-H in the paper, speaking on the radio about 4-H, or riding on a 4-H float during a parade. Volunteer leadership should explain, "How and what did I do to lead or teach others in 4-H?" Examples of volunteer leadership include: led the Pledge of Allegiance at the 4-H meeting, demonstrated how to measure a tablespoon at a 4-H club meeting, or organized a 4-H workshop. Elected/appointed leadership explains, "What did you do to improve 4-H?" This includes leadership in volunteering to serve on a committee like the telephone, recreation, and/or refreshment committee, and in serving in any elected office such as president or reporter of the local club, county 4-H council and or district/state council. Do NOT include leadership that occurred as part of performing a community service activity. Providing primary leadership to a community service effort should be reported in Section III.

SENIOR (CONTINUED)

Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section III - 4-H Community Service List community service or service learning projects that might include: clean ups, collections, repairs, construction, care packets, visitations, education, donations, and presentations. Note: 2 page maximum, current year’s information only Community service is the opportunity for 4-H members to go out into the community and help others, or to improve the quality of the town and the lives of those around them. How do you know if what you have been doing is community service? Ask yourself: “What did I do to help other people because of 4-H?” Community service activities should be “coded” by the amount of community service and number of persons involved in the activity. There are three codes that reflect this: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “Y” Yourself – this was a community service project that you did all by yourself with no help from other 4-H members or club. • “P” Provided Primary Leadership – you were the organizer, you made all the arrangements, and recruited other 4-H members to help you. • “M” Member of a Group – when another 4-H member called asking for help, you were there as a worker and helper. Note: This section is for community service activities only and not for citizenship experiences (citizenship is a project; see category description document for more details).
Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section IV – Other 4-H Projects List other project(s) not listed in Section I, include number of years and summarize participation. Note: 1 page maximum, current year only Tell briefly about other 4-H projects not listed in Section I. These are not the 4-Her’s main project area, but have enhanced the individual’s 4-H experience. Be sure to summarize the project knowledge and skills gained.
Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section V – 4-H Recognition and Awards List 4-H recognition and awards. Note: 1 page maximum, current year only Awards and recognition are important in the 4-H program. They provide an opportunity for 4-H members to be recognized for all of their hard work and dedication to a 4-H project, leadership provided to others, community service activities, and of course for being the “best all-around 4-H member.”

Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section VI – Non 4-H Activities List leadership, community service, awards and recognition from other activities such as school, church, and other community organizations. Note: 1 page maximum, current year only This section allows the member to show off school, church, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, or other youth organization activities, leadership, community service, and awards and recognition.
Senior Report Form (cont.)	Section VII – College and Career Exploration List activities that have helped you learn more about careers or the necessary education to enter a career. Note: 1 page maximum, current year only List 4-H and non 4-H activities that have helped the member learn more about careers or the necessary education to enter a career of interest. Examples of these activities include: presentation by professional, interviews, tours, job shadowing, research, mentoring, work experience, skill development, course work, etc. Month and year is all that is needed.
Report Forms from prior years	Include Report Forms from previous three years (if available). The prior three years will be evaluated to determine growth in the project.
Additional photos	For Photography Record books only. May include 6 additional pages maximum.

General Guidelines

- Handwriting: Handwriting any part of the recordbook is acceptable. When doing so, make sure to write legibly.
- Grammar and Punctuation: For all age divisions, members are encouraged to write in complete sentences and use proper grammar and punctuation.
- Text Margins: Top, bottom and right margins must be between 1/2 and 1 inch. The left margin must be 1 1/2 inches to allow for hole punching and/or binding (if using the 4-H recordbook cover).
- Paper Type: Typing paper and bond weight paper are acceptable. Do not paste typing paper to construction paper, and do not use sheet protectors or dividers.
- Dividers: Tabbed dividers are allowed to separate forms for each year.
- Creativity: This is encouraged, and can include the use of backgrounds, decorative elements, construction paper cutouts, etc. throughout the story and photo sections. Creativity can also come in the form of writing.
- Font: Color or black fonts are acceptable. Use a minimum of a 10-point font (equivalent in size to 10-point Arial).

Portions of this guide have been adapted from the Texas 4-H "Record Improvement Guide" (May 2000).

Projects NOT suitable include beef, horse, rabbit, sheep, goat, swine or poultry or any other species that has a defined category.
Beef	Includes information from a market and/or breeding beef project. Examples of activities to include: animal husbandry, livestock selection, health, quiz bowls, and the exhibition of beef cattle at local, county, state, and national cattle shows.
Citizenship & Civic Education	Include information such as serving your community, knowing how to make a difference, or learning about your local, state, or national communities/government. This project category involves more than just community service projects, but also learning more about communities and government. Member understands the right and responsibilities of membership within the family, neighborhood, community, state, nation and world through appreciation of cultures and heritage.
Clothing & Textiles	Includes information such as creativity in designing, sewing, purchasing clothes while making a style you call yours, use basic/advanced sewing/construction skills, develop good consumer skills, and serve the community. Participants should demonstrate how they have gained self-confidence and poise through learning how to enhance personal appearance. This category is not limited to clothing, but includes all aspects of textiles use and the industry.
Companion Animal	This category includes activities such as selection, care, maintenance, production, and responsibilities associated with a companion animal. A companion animal is a pet or domestic animal (examples: dog, cat, guinea pig, etc.). This category does NOT include any livestock projects, exotic wildlife animals or rabbits.

Consumer Education	This category includes activities where youth learn to make wise decisions when making purchases; whether it is apparel, home appliances, electronics, personal financial tools or automobiles. Consumer education also encompasses housing and home environment, planning efficient living spaces, wise use of energy resources in the home, and educating oneself about products used in the home. Project activities also focus on the economy, money management, consumer rights and responsibilities, and the environment as it relates to the consumer.
Entomology	This category includes activities where youth learn about insects by studying, collecting and identifying various insects. Discover how helpful and harmful insects live, multiply, are controlled, and affect humans. Includes activities such as beekeeping.
Family Life	This category includes activities where youth increase their knowledge and skills regarding family issues such as care of young children, working with older adults, preparing for marriage, and relating to others. Vocational choices and career preparation are also covered in this project.
Food & Nutrition	This category includes activities related to the food and nutrition project where youth learn to make healthy food choices, prepare nutritious and safe meals and snacks, gain knowledge of nutrients, and adopt behaviors that can help reduce their risk for chronic disease.
Gardening & Horticulture	This category includes activities related to the horticulture project where youth learn about plant growth, environmental horticulture and ecology, fruits and nuts, landscape design, soil and water, insects and diseases, vegetables and herbs, and life skills and career exploration.
Goat	Includes information from a market and/or breeding goat project. Examples of activities to include: animal husbandry, livestock selection, health, and the exhibition of meat or haired goats at local, county, state, and national goat shows. This category excludes dairy goat activities, which must be entered in the Agricultural Sciences category.
Health	This category includes activities where youth learn how to improve physical, intellectual, emotional, and social health. It also focuses on healthy living, prevention and wellness and community health resources. Safety concerns related to health issues, such as first aid and emergency preparedness, can also be included.

Horse	This category includes activities related to the horse project such as activities in horsemanship, horse development, selection and training. Horse project members can demonstrate their knowledge and skills through exhibiting horses, riding competitions, quiz bowls, speaking events and judging events.
Leadership	The leadership category includes activities where youth can demonstrate learning and the practice of leadership life skills. Information provided in this category could demonstrate growth in leadership through a variety of projects. Templates for 4-H recordkeeping

- To use the resources provided in the website, you must be logged into a Google account
- This is a tool for recordkeeping. It is NOT an online 4-H Record Book.
- Information from the templates can be copied and pasted into the Word or PDF forms.
- Credit for creation of this recordkeeping tool goes to Claire Godwin, Williamson County 4-H member.
- Records can also be added using a smart phone, either iPhone or Android, using the Google Drive app

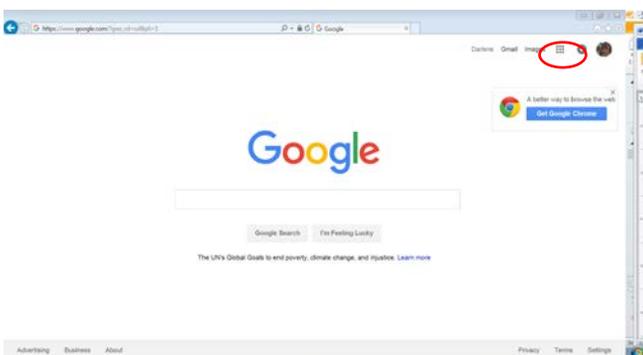

<https://sites.google.com/site/texas4hrecordbookguide>

To get started:

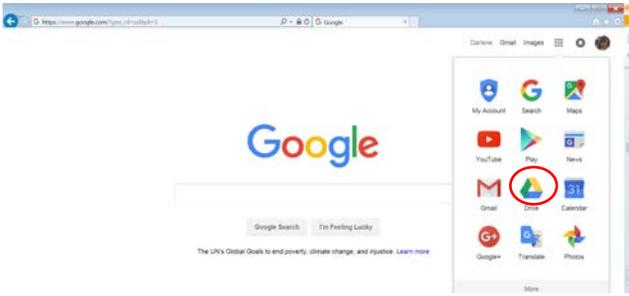

1. Log into your Google account and sign in.

2. Open Google Drive by clicking on the group of boxes in the upper right corner.

3. Select the Google Drive Icon

4. Once in Google Drive copy and paste this address <https://sites.google.com/site/texas4hrecordbookguide/home>

You should now be at Claire’s instructional page which provides links with step by step instructions describing How to Use the Templates

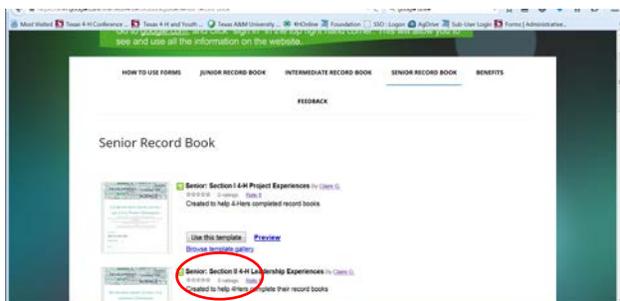

Basic Overview of How to Use the Templates

1. Near the top of the screen, click on the Age Level appropriate to 4-H Member.

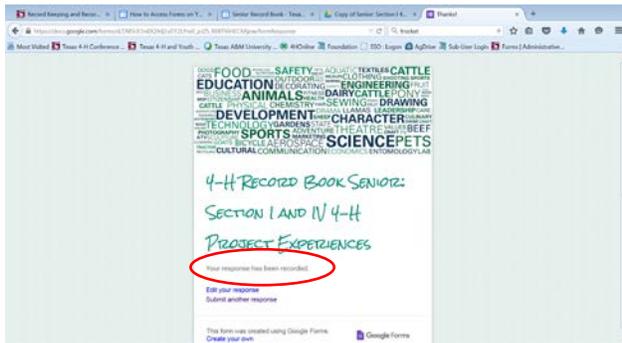

Example: Senior Record Book

2. Download the template of your choice by clicking “Use This Template”. This will save the template into your Google Drive. At this point, no others can see your form or your recorded data.

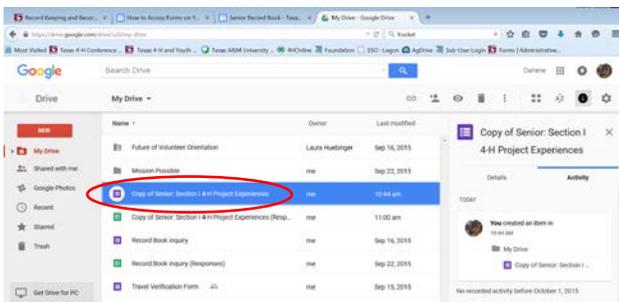

- Once the information is 'typed' into the fields, it is automatically saved. The next screen will show that the response has been recorded.

At this point you can edit the response or submit another response.

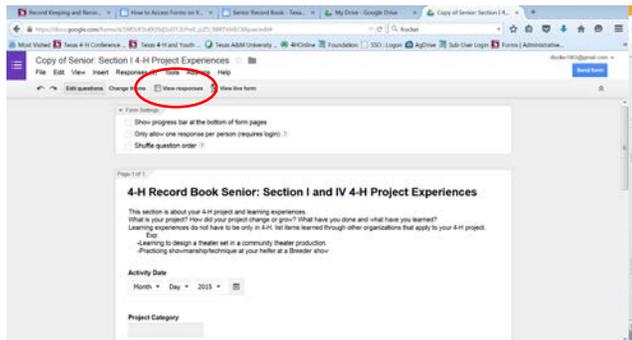

For subsequent entries for this form you would return to your Google Drive account and click on the 'Copy of XXX'

You will access the form each time you want to enter an activity or event.

- To now see your entries in a spreadsheet, return to form download. Click on View Responses.

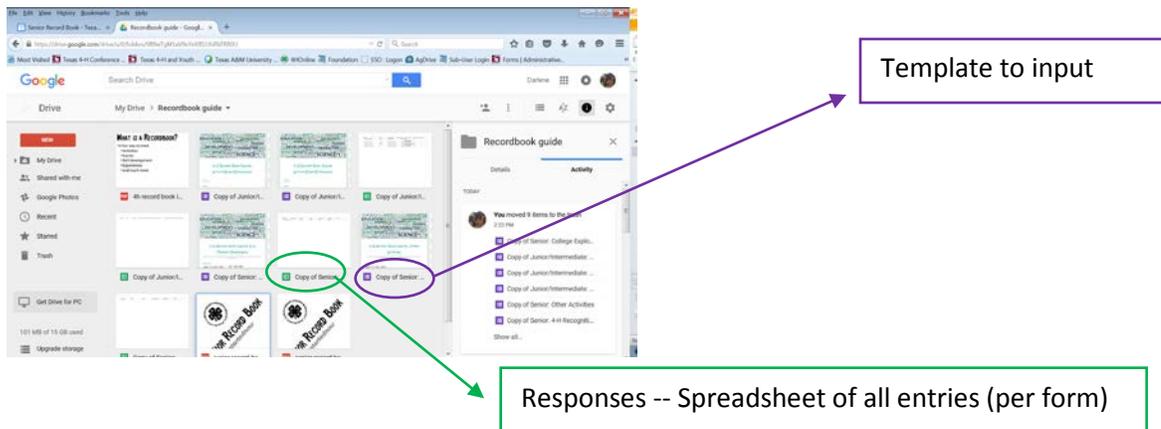

If this is the first time to review the responses you will be prompted to choose response destination. In most cases you will create a new spreadsheet. The other option is to create a new sheet within an existing spreadsheet.

Timestamp	Activity Date	Project Category	Activity	What you did?	Importance	Hours	Did you make any purchase?
10/1/2015 10:55:54	9/17/2015	Beef	showmanship clinic	Participated in showmanship	learned to set my trailer & learned to watch the judge	2	100# feed $47.00
10/1/2015 10:56:41	9/10/2015	Beef	purchase feed	purchased 100# feed	washed grocery store with compressed fuel tanks	1
10/1/2015 11:05:17	8/15/2015	Food & Nutrition	grocery store tour	learning about nutritional	compared brand name w. cost per ounce on similar	2

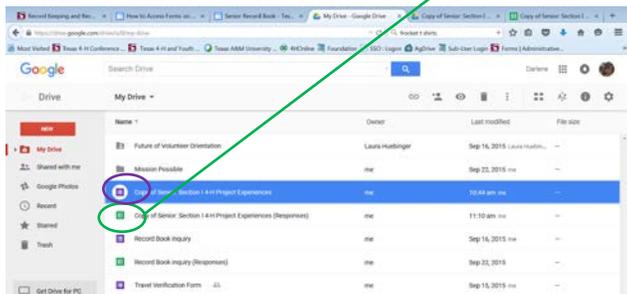

The columns within the spreadsheet can be sorted by either activity date or project or any of the named columns. This data can be copied and then pasted into the Word forms for the 4-H Record Book. The spreadsheet can also be edited; example you forget to put a date for an entry, you can add the date from the spreadsheet responses mode.

7. When viewing the Drive directory, each form will have a separate spreadsheet listing all the responses within that form. Responses appear with a green icon. The forms for inputting data have a purple icon.

(When viewing in the Grid version)

(When viewing in the List version)

That's it! You should now be able to input activities or events as they happen. Each activity or event requires a separate entry, and will then appear in the corresponding spreadsheet of responses.

Additionally, you can download Google Drive to your Iphone or Android device and you will be able to input your entries on your mobile device!
