

Spring Forage Field Day, MP Brangus
800 – 2622 Wolf Lane
Valley Mills, Texas
Friday, May 27th

Hosted by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, McLennan County

Registration opens at 7:30 a.m. and program starts at 8:00 a.m. Registration fee is $10 per person. Registration fee includes breakfast sponsored by Lone Star Ag Credit and a beef fajita lunch sponsored by Purina at noon. The program will have sessions on the following topics:

- Welcome – Mark Perry, Owner of MP Brangus
- Expected Progeny Difference (EPD's) – Garrett Thomas, Owner of Hi-Point Sales and Marketing
- Artificial Insemination and Embryo Transfer – Logan Dodd, Client Service Specialist, Southern Region for Trans Ova Genetics
- Importance of Correct Mineral Supplementation – Jon DeClerck, Beef Consulting Nutritionist for Purina
- Replacement Female and Herd Sire Selection – David Groschke, Limestone County Agent for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension
- Low Stress Weaning of Calves – Tracy Woods, Chief Genetics Officer for 44 Farms
- Managing Native Forage – Vanessa Corriher-Olson, Forage Specialist for Texas A&M AgriLife Extension

Interested persons Must Pre-Register before May 23, 2022 by calling the McLennan County Extension Office at (254)757-5180.