Season's of Taste Traveling Cooking School

It is time once again for the Season's of Taste Traveling Cooking School. The theme for this year is "Black Tie to Black-Eyed Peas" from Fancy to Simple Recipes. There will be five different demonstrations by local Family & Consumer Science County Extension Agents, which cover several holiday areas. They are: Christmas Brunch by Mary Sue Cole, Hunt County, Buffet Meals/Entertaining by Denita Young, Rains County & Dee Lee Smith, Van Zandt County, Light & Tasty/Low-Fat & Low-Sugar by Johanna Hicks, Hopkins County, Holiday Kids/Kids in the Kitchen by Sheila Lewis, Smith County and Quick Meals/Holiday Rush by Patrice Dunagin, Smith County and Angie Monk, Wood County.

Along with the food demonstrations, each Agent will also present their food on a beautiful tablescape and serve samples of their recipes. Your paid registration also makes you eligible for door prize drawings, refreshments upon arrival, a goodie bag, and a complete booklet with all the recipes and ideas presented. What a deal!

The first session will be held on Tuesday, October 7, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. at the Farm Bureau in Canton and the second will be held on Tuesday, October 21, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. at the Hopkins County Civic Center. The cost is $10.00 if you register before October 1 and after that date it is $15.00. You must pre-register if you plan on attending. Please call or come by the Texas AgriLife Extension Service office to get a registration form. Feel free to call our office at 903/473-5000, ext 157, if you have any questions.

I look forward to seeing you at the 2nd Annual Season's of Taste Traveling Cooking School!
