

Liz Buckner
County Extension Agent-FCS
Rusk County

Newspaper Column

The District V Extension Education Cultural Arts Event was held at the St. Louis Baptist Church in Tyler on July 21st. A delegation of members from the Rusk County Extension Education Association were in attendance with two members presenting educational demonstrations and three submitting entries in the cultural arts competition.

The Cultural Arts event is always held in the mid-summer of every year and gives extension club members in all of the 22 counties in East District V the opportunity to enter their afghans, quilts, holiday decor, painting, photography, crafts, needlework, and like items into the district cultural arts contest. Entries winning first at district advance to state competition in Waco in September, and three cultural arts entries from Rusk County placed 1st and will advance to state competition. The winning entries were submitted by Jacque Endsley, Wanda White, and Cathy McKey.

This year the Rusk County Extension Education Association members along with the Harrison County members assisted with the check-in of the District V Cultural Arts entries.

Of the 90 people in attendance were the following from Rusk County: Mrs. Wanda White, President, Mrs. Cathy McKey, Vice President, Mrs. Linda McAlister, Treasurer, Mrs. Louise Jones, Chaplain, Mrs. Jacque Endsley, and Mrs. Betty Honea.

For more information about how to join the extension association, please contact the Rusk County Extension Office at 903-657-0376.

Extension programs serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, disability, or national origin. A delegation of members from the Rusk County Extension Education Association.

The Rusk County Extension Education Association Delegation at the District V Cultural Arts Event-July 21st.

Pictured Standing L-R: Betty Honea, Liz Buckner, Wanda White, Cathy McKey, Linda McAlister, Jacque Endsley Front: Mrs. Louise Jones