Total Sellers.....222

Feeder Calf Companies.....30

Feeder Calf Buyers.....16

Compared to last week: The front-end of both feeder steers and heifers class prices showed to be mostly $3 to $6 weaker. Those plainer, hard to place feeder calves faced total resistance from any buyer interest and were easily $10 to $20 lower with certain lower grading calves even lower.

Slaughter cows and slaughter bulls ended mostly firm with last week's prices

Unusually cold and wet weather along with huge volumes of feeder calves hitting the market place are placing feeder prices under a strain. The gap between good quality feeder calves and the plainer calves today showed the largest price difference we have seen so far this year.
