Compared to last week: all classes of feeder steers and heifer feeder price averages ended fully $3 to $6 higher. Slaughter cows today showed $2 higher while the slaughter bulls ended mostly firm to $3 lower.

Feeder buyers today were aggressive with strong demand on all classes of feeder calves. Today's post holiday run was light as the beef industry begins to gear up for the second half of 2020. Drought areas in the summer grazing country continue to exist as does backlog of market ready fats.
