Compared to last week: all weight class averages of both feeder steers and heifers weighing 500 lbs and down ended steady while those classes over 500 lbs ended about $3 higher. Slaughter cows continue to remain under some pressure but held the figures together from last week. Slaughter bulls weakened by about $4.

Today's corn futures closed higher and forced negative closings on the feeder side but showed no affect on buyer aggression. Widespread heavy rainfall has occurred in the areas from Kansas to S. Dakota which has also helped fuel buyer interest and optimism.

Next Week: 103 head sellout of crossbred cows-ages from 4 to 7 years old
Mostly pairs with Charlois sired calves and bred back to Charlois Bulls
Also: 75 head of crossbred cows-ages also from 3 to 7 years
Both pairs and bred cows
