TEXAS A&M
AGRI LIFE
EXTENSION

Each plant community supports its own mixture of grasses, forbs and woody species— these change over time. Land managers must deal with meeting current consumption needs of livestock, as well as health of the rangeland, and future production.

Topics include:

10 Misconceptions in Grazing Management - Jeff Goodwin, Noble Foundation

Tools For Determining Grazeable Acres— Dr. Megan Clayton, AgriLife Extension Range Specialist

LANDvisor— Jamie Baumgardner, Corteva

Weed & Brush Control Calendar- Megan Clayton, AgriLife Extension Range Specialist

Reading The Range - Frank Price, Frank & Sims Price Ranch— Sterling City

Registration cost is $10.00 by September 25th . Please make checks out to Sutton Ag Program Fund.
