Food Handler's Course

Foodborne illnesses can be prevented by following simple food safety practices. Texas A&M AgriLife Extension-Wise County provides a Food Protection Management Training Program that seeks to reduce the risk of food borne illness.

Food service employees and those who operate a cottage food business can attend a two hour food handler's class on Wednesday, August 7, 2019 from 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm at the Wise County Extension office in Decatur to learn more about good personal hygiene, cross contamination and time and temperature abuse. The registration fee is $20.00 and covers course materials and an official food handler card which is good for two years. The deadline for registration is Tuesday, August 6. Space is limited.

For questions concerning the food handler class or the Texas Cottage Food Law please call 940/627-3341 or come by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension's, Wise County Office, 206 S. State St., Decatur, Texas 76234.
