Frequently Asked Questions

- What is Leaders are Readers?

Leaders are Readers is a virtual Summer book club that will meet via zoom and have one in person field trip this June and July. There will be one book that all book club members will read, William Danforth's I Dare You.

- Do I have to attend all of the meetings to be apart of the book club?

No! We understand that youth have busy schedules. We will have each meeting recorded so that if you miss one, you can watch it later.

- Do I have to read the book all at once?

No, we will be reading a little at a time. Participants will read the chapters before hand and then we will discuss them at the meeting. Above, you can find the chapters that will be discussed at each meeting.

- What is the meeting schedule and who can attend the book club meetings?

The meeting schedule is listed above, and the book club is for all students entering 6th - 12th grades.

- What will we learn in this book club?

We are going to learn all about leadership. Each meeting we will have a topic that corresponds with the chapters youth have previously read such as conflict resolution, decision making and goal setting.
